UINTA BASIN WELCOMES NEW INDUSTRIAL SUPPLY WAREHOUSE

Industrial Supply Company to be central supplier to Utah's oil and gas industry.

(Salt Lake City, UT) December 11, 2013 --Industrial Supply Company opened its eighth location, a 5,000 square foot warehouse in Vernal, Utah, on November 11, 2013.

This warehouse will be servicing oil and gas companies operating in Uintah County, Utah's largest oil producer and distributor of natural resources. As one of the region's largest distributors of safety and personal protection equipment for the mining industry, Industrial Supply Company hopes to become the leading supplier to oil, gas and coal industry in Uintah County.

Industrial Supply Company's Territory Manager, Belinda Johnson will be managing the oil and gas market in the Vernal area. "Belinda is a great asset to our company and understands the customer service needs in the area," noted Randy Evans, Industrial Supply's President of Construction, Mining, and Safety. She will also be servicing the coal industry north of Uintah County and the western slope of Colorado. In addition, Belinda will be tending Industrial Supply Company's existing customer base which includes power plants as well as industrial and commercial contractors.

Evans stated, "We are excited to be a local supplier in an area of which we have not yet had a strong presence. We're looking forward to building relationships within the community and industry."
